PROCEEDINGS, &c.

In conformity with a resolution of the Synod of September 1834, the members of the German Reformed Synod of Pennsylvania, and adjoining States, together with their respective delegates were convened in the borough of Orwigsburg, in Schuylkill county, Pa. on the 1st Sabbath in September, A. D., 1835. On the Saturday previous, the services preparatory to the celebration of the Lord's Supper, were conducted by the Rev. brethren, Thomas H. Leinbach and Henry Bibighaus, the former delivering a very appropriate sermon from Ephes. 4, 1—6 ; and the latter addressing the audience on the exalted nature and design of this Feast of Love. In the evening of the same day the candidates for the gospel ministry, Messrs. W. T. Gerhard and C. F. Winter, addressed an attentive audience, from John 14, 21.—and Phillp. 2, 5. The following morning, being appointed as the time to celebrate the Lord's Supper, the brethren of the ministry together with their deputies, and a numerous concourse of people repaired to the House of God. The solemnities of the occasion were introduced by the Rev. J. S. Dubbs, President of the Synod, who delivered an energetic pastoral sermon from John 15, 5. after which, the emblems of the broken Body and shed blood of the dear Redeemer, as the bread and water of life to all true believers, were dispensed to the Ministers of the Gospel and other communicating members, in a manner calculated to make a lasting impression for good, upon all present. Sabbath afternoon, the Rev. John C. Guldin delivered a sermon from Phil. 2, 30. and in the evening of the same day, the congregation was again addressed by the Rev. F. E. Von der Sloot, from Ps. 37, 7. and by the Rev. J. Davis, in the English language, from Matth. 27, 39. In this manner, were the solemnities of a day concluded, never to be forgotten by the persons who enjoyed a participation in them,

SESSION FIFTH—Wednesday morning, 8 o'clock.*
Opened with devotional exercises.

1. The committee appointed to report on the state of religion in the bounds of this synod, made the following report: "On the state of religion, within the bounds of this synod, your committee would present the following: That the brethren connected with this branch of Zion, as we believe, labour with more than usual zeal in building up the Church of Jesus Christ; and as a consequence hereof, much more feeling on the subject of religion is found to exist, among the congregations composing their respective charges, than formerly; but your committee are still convinced, that much more remains to be done; and that a deplorable deficiency is yet found among thousands on the subject of experimental religion. Your committee therefore, would humbly suggest the propriety of synod's recommending to all the brethren and congregations in this connexion, where it is practicable to hold conferences, or a continuation of public worship for several days in succession."

5. Resolved, That Good Friday, 1836, be observed as a day of Prayer and Thanksgiving in all the congregations in connexion with this synod.

8. Resolved, That the Missionary report of brother J. Davis, be handed over to the managers of the Missionary society.

9. Resolved, That the report of brother J. S. Ebaugh, containing a succinct account of his labours during the past year, be published with the proceedings of this synod: which is as follows—"In compliance with a standing resolution of this reverend Body, I transmit herewith a written report of my labours in the vineyard of the Lord, during the past year, ending the 1st of September, 1835. After my return home from the synod in Allentown, in September, 1834, I proceeded to Perry county, for the purpose of holding a protracted meeting in a vacant congregation in the neighbourhood of Ickesburg, having obtained for the purpose the aid of the Rev. Geo. Duffield of Carlisle, and Rev. J. Sellers, here present. The meeting commenced on Thursday, and continued until Sabbath evening following, with increasing interest. Sabbath, being the time appointed for the administration of the Lord's Supper, there were 33 members added unto this Church, as the fruits of a revival of religion, brought about through my feeble instrumentality and labours during the preceding summer. These individuals, together with many others in this congregation and neighbourhood, have since proved by their consistent walk and conversation, that they have hopefully passed from death unto life, insomuch, that there appears to have been a great reformation effected by means thereof for miles around the church in which this meeting was held.

In the month of November following, I visited Middletown, Dauphin county, where I was solicited to spend the sabbath, and to aid the Rev. Peter Sahm, pastor of the Lutheran church, in the services connected with the administration of the Lord's Supper, on which occasion I preached three times; aided said brother, in the distribution of the emblems of the dying love of Jesus, to a large number of deeply affected communicants, and had the pleasure of learning during my stay in that place, that the congregation became roused to a sense of the preciousness of having the Word of God preached to them every sabbath, instead of once a month; and were induced at once to increase their contributions more than double, and requested their pastor to relinquish the charge of four or five other congregations, for the purpose of affording the inhabitants of Middletown and vicinity, an opportunity of attending the public services of the sanctuary every sabbath.

About this time I also entered upon the discharge of the duties of Agent of the American Bible Society, and the American Sunday School Union, for the State of Pennsylvania ; and as such visited, during the six months for which I was appointed, ten counties of the state, and preached often ten times a week, on the subject of my agencies, and succeeded in establishing, and resuscitating about 20 Sabbath Schools—and disposed of about $300 00 worth Sabbath School books, and used every effort to further the interests of the Sabbath schools generally.

In the cause of the American Bible Society I have also laboured, from last November to the present time ; during which period I have visited 16 counties, and preached very frequently, and succeeded in organizing 15 Auxiliary Bible Societies, which promise the distribution of many thousands of copies of the sacred scriptures, and to aid the cause of the Bible both in this and foreign lands.

I also attended several protracted meetings; and in labouring on these occasions with brethren of different evangelical denominations, had my soul often refreshed, in beholding the Word of God having free course, running and being glorified, in the hopeful conviction and conversion of many precious souls, and turning them from darkness unto light, and from the power of Satan unto God.

In the month of May last, I attended the anniversaries of different national Benevolent Societies in New York, such as the American Bible Society—the Home Missionary Society—American Tract Society—the American Board of Missions for Foreign Missions, &c., 12 in number ; and was rejoiced to learn from their annual reports, that they have received within the year past, ending in May 1835, upwards of $500,000, for the extension of the Kingdom of the dear Redeemer in this and foreign lands ; and in justice to my own feelings I must say, that those anniversaries afforded me one of the most perfect feasts of reason and flows of soul that I ever participated of ; and I most seriously advise each member of this Reverend Body, who can possibly make it convenient, to spend the second week in next May, in N. York, in attending those anniversaries; inasmuch as the brethren in the city, make a general provision for the entertainment of the brethren from a distance, who may visit the city on those occasions.

In conclusion, I would only remark further that, I have presented a very concise report of my labours in the past year, as I am well aware that were I to enter into details on this subject as entered in my diary, it would swell my report beyond the limits usually allotted for communications of this nature, in the proceedings of our Synod — All of which is respectfully submitted by your sincere brother in Christ,

JOHN S. EBAUGH.

Orwigsburg, Sept. 7th, 1835.

P. S. I consider the past year, one of the most useful and important years of my life.

16. The business of Synod having been concluded, in a most fraternal manner our Rev. brother Lauener, entertained the congregation during the remainder of the forenoon, with an interesting discourse from John 21, 15--17. At the conclusion of these exercises, the Rev. H. Bibighaus by request of the President of the Synod, presented the united thanks of the members of Synod, to the inhabitants of Orwigsburg and its vicinity, for their kind and hospitable entertainment of the brethren during the sessions of Synod; and commended the brethren, with their respective congregations to the guidance and protection of Jesus Christ, as the great Archbishop of Souls. This being done, the brethren all, prostrated themselves before a Throne of Grace, and united in pouring out their praises and thanksgivings to God, for the special love and unanimity with which the Synod had been conducted, through all the important business which claimed the attention of the brethren during its sessions; of which it might be emphatically said: "Behold how lovely it is, for brethren to dwell together in unity."

This evening, the Rev. J. S. Ebaugh ascended the sacred desk again, and preached to an attentive audience from Ezek. 37, 7—9. and was followed by brother B. T. Neal in an address, and by prayer and thanksgiving to the God of all grace, for the hopeful amount of good which He had accomplished through the instrumentality of his ministering servants, during the convention of Synod.

I do hereby certify, that the foregoing is, in substance, a true Copy of the proceedings of the Synod of the German Reformed Church of Pennsylvania, and adjoining States.

CHARLES LEWIS DAUBERT, Sec'y.
